

Pearson BTEC Level 3 National Extended Certificate in Health and Social Care

Units:

Over the course of the two years, you are required to complete 4 units of work.

- 1) Human Lifespan Development
- 2) Working in Health and Social Care
- 3) Meeting Individual Care and Support Needs
- 4) Supporting individuals with Additional Needs

Your bridging tasks are to:

With regard to ‘Human Lifespan Development’, you are asked to research:

- a) Piaget’s model of how children learn, for example, the stages of cognitive development.

- b) Chomsky’s model of how children acquire language – the Language Acquisition Device.

